President Taylor, at Huntington, W. Va.

(Central Methodist.)

It is right hard for an ex-Kentuckian to get entirely away from his friends and acquaintances. When the young ladies of Johnson Memorial church were in need of an address to help them meet certain obligations, they laid strong hands on Prof. H. K. Taylor, of the Kentucky Wesleyan College. He came last week and gave us his splendid address on "Cuba, Then, and Ten Years After the Spaniard Left." It was thoroughly first-class and full of thrilling interest. The audience went away delighted with the address and the lecturer. President Taylor never forgets that he is a Christian and a Methodist. Would that the land was full of such men. Come again, professor; the latch string is on the outside and the welcome will be equal to your own Kentucky hospitality. W. F. LLOYD, Prof. Taylor will deliver this popular lecture on Cuba at the Methodist church on Saturday night, April 24th.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor," than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten a way eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of Eczema, Fever Sores, Boils, Burns and Piles astounded the world. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

For the second time in history the Niagara falls are mute. A big ice jam has clogged the river and a strong southwest wind has frozen it from bank to bank. The jam has also caused damage to the extent of $1,000,000 to manufacturing along its banks on account of the sudden rise of the water above the stoppage.

Up Before The Bar.

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders, 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

The mob carried Brame to Flat Lick, near the Trigg and Christian county line, and hanged him to a tree.

Strange Story.

A tramp came to the garden gate. With pity in her eye She handed the poor man a plate Of huckleberry pie.

When such a story I relate There is no need to sigh. It's not a mournful fact I state—She handed him some pie.

It was her first one, too, I hate To palter or to lie. She gave that sorry reprobate Her first completed pie.

He took it, too. He did not wait, He was in no way shy. He thanked her kindly and he ate Her huckleberry pie.

Still, his was not a hapless fate, He did not groan and die, Although he did not hesitate To eat the lady's pie.

I'm telling you this story straight And there's no reason why I should not. It was a first-rate, A truly splendid pie.

It is hard to tell which is the warmest advocate of the whisky business the Frankfort State Journal or the Courier-Journal. Both papers devote a good share of their editorial and news columns daily to the booze cause and each severely ridicules those persons who favor prohibition. It is a pity that men like Messrs. Walton and Watterson do not put their talents to better use than that of attempting to further a cause which is responsible for more wrecked human beings, blasted hopes, trouble and heartaches than all the other damnable agencies combined. If the above editors must have "red liquor in their" suppose they go ahead with it and let those who do not agree with them on the subject also have a say in the matter. We do not agree with the distinguished gentlemen that all of the brains of this grand State are on their side of the question and that those who take issue with them are either "numbskulls," "fanatics" or "nincompoops." That Frankfort may exist in Louisville and Kentucky, but a trip to this section of God's glorious country will convince the gentlemen that there are some real sensible people who are not for the free and unlimited sale of red liquor. They should investigate a little further before they speak for the State at large.

THAT Fairbanks, Hemenway and Watson intend to return to Indiana and make a fight on Senator Beveridge's domination of the Republican party in the Hoosier State is believed to be indicated by their frequent refusals to accept Federal office at the hands of President Taft. Former Senator Hemenway recently turned down the mission to China, and former Senator Fulton, of Oregon, has been offered the post.

RESPONDING to an appeal from William Jennings Bryan, the Lower House of the Texas Legislature passed the bank guarantee bill 80 to 13. The country rejected this and other planks of the Democratic platform last year, but the States are adopting it fast, especially in the West, where wildcat banking flourishes.

As far as rates are concerned the Senate tariff bill has been completed, but it is announced that reservations will be made on important schedules, including hides, steel rails, wood pulp and crude petroleum. It has been decided to continue the Dingley rates on hosiery and gloves.

THE arrival of twins in the family of Wm. Hedinger, a farmer near Rouquet, Pa., has resulted in the death of the father and his mother-in-law. The latter succumbed to heart disease, the result of excitement, and Hedinger, on hearing the news, went to the barn and shot himself.

Representative Stanley's amendment to the Payne tariff bill, taking off the six-cent tax on leaf tobacco, was adopted by the House less than a minute before the time for voting on the bill arrived.

Secretary of War Dickinson, in a speech at the Southern Club banquet in Chicago, said he believed the administration of President Taft would result in great good to the South.

The two republican Congressmen of Tennessee will recommend the appointment of Mrs. E. W. Carmack as postmistress at Columbia. They will ask the Democratic Congressmen in the State to join them in pushing her claim.

The bill providing for taking the 13th census was passed by a viva voce vote in the Senate without any important change. An amendment by Mr. Bailey, taking appointments for the census work from the Civil Service Commission, was defeated.

Representatives of the republicans in the Third judicial district will call on Attorney General James Breathitt this week and petition him to accept the nomination for circuit judge. Either Christian or Trigg county will furnish a republican candidate for Commonwealth's attorney.

After three weeks of consideration the Payne tariff bill was passed by the House of Representatives by a vote of 217 to 161. One Republican, Austin, of Tennessee, voted against the measure and four Democrats, all from Louisiana, Messrs. Broussard, Estopinal, Pojo and Wickliffe, voted for it. An attempt by Champ Clark, the minority leader, to recommit the bill with instructions failed. The principal change made in the bill was to put oil on the free list.

THE Easter Recital at the Christian church Friday evening was an exceedingly high-class entertainment and it was enjoyed by a reasonably good audience. The best singers in town took part and the solos, quartettes and choruses were all well rendered. The recitations by the children and the pantomime by a dozen youngsters evoked much favorable comment. The violin numbers of Miss Em E. Smith, of Danville, were features of the very delightful program. She is a virtuoso in her line and our people will not soon forget the sweet music she made. Miss Ellen Ballou's overture on the organ was another number that brought forth applause. The Young Men's Bible Class is under obligations to all who took part and the members are especially grateful to Miss Smith and Dr. O. B. Fallis.

Dinwiddie or any other person for the Republican nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of the Police Court. COBB.—A good mother in Israel passed into the great beyond Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Minerva Cobb, relict of Mr. Richard Cobb, breathed her last. She had been ill only a short while with pneumonia but her advanced age—87—precluded hope of her recovery and many of her relatives, including a brother, Mr. Eli Park, and sister, Mrs. Tabitha Cobb, both of Madison, were present when the end peacefully came. Deceased was Miss Minerva Park, of Madison county, and was married in 1841 to the husband who preceded her to the grave in 1900. Sixty-seven years ago she joined the Christian church and had since been a consistent member. A few Sundays since she was in her accustomed pew, seemingly in the best of health and spirits. She enjoyed the sermon and so told many of her friends. Mrs. Cobb is survived by three children, Mesdames Thos. Phelps, of Richmond, and Bettie McKinney, of this place, and Mr. Richard Cobb, of Boyle, and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. It is hard for them to give up the good mother and grand-mother, but she had been spared to them many long years and now that she is reaping the reward of a well-spent life, they could not wish her back. She was an exceedingly cheerful, happy woman and it was the delight of her children and other relatives to have her with them. Truly a good woman has left her earthly abode and joined the heavenly hosts above where joy and love reign supreme. May her good deeds and pure life be emulated. Rev. D. M. Walker preached an appropriate funeral discourse at the home of Mr. W. M. Bright at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, after which the body was laid to rest beside her husband in Buffalo cemetery. A large crowd of friends and relatives was present and flowers brought by those who loved the Godly woman hid from view the mound that marks her resting place.

CAPT. B. F. POWELL had a narrow escape Sunday. The horse he was riding ran away when the bridle broke and for some 500 yards fairly flew. The captain grasped the animal around the neck and held on until it finally stopped. Capt. Powell says he has heard cannon balls whistle around him but was never quite so uneasy as when swinging to the speedy horse.

THE Easter services at the various churches were well attended and greatly enjoyed. At the Methodist church at night an especially interesting program was given. At the Presbyterian church in the morning the program included a violin solo by Miss Berta Jean Penny, which was faultlessly rendered. The Baptist and Christian choirs gave a number of appropriate selections.
